Poll worker was never issued an oath nor signed acknowledgment of taking it (Title 7-13-100)	Horry	Y	Never took oath at training or prior to working the poll on June 14th. The oath was printed on a paper at the very top that they were to sign in order to be paid for working the polls during the runoff, but in rather small font so it was easy to miss. The poll worker didn't even know about it until nearly noon on election day (runoff).	S. Balaz
Concerns about verification of proper ID to confirm address/person was legit (Title 7-13-710)	Horry	Y	It appeared that voters were not always providing verification and were allowed to vote although their address was different from system.	S. Balaz

Issue	County	Affidavit	Comment	Person
	Charleston	Y	Voters appeared to be photo ID shopping-no proof required and looking for IDs to vote; SEC has no record of these.	M. Lull/K. Fowler/Carroll
	Beaufort	Y	Voters weren't asked to pull down masks to verify identity; this was part of the training and should have been done. This is a violation of 7-13-710	I. Shedlock
	York	Y	Photo IDs were not always asked for and addresses not always verified properly	A. McKim
Difficulty with poll books/machines or machine selection of proper vote. This would require multiple attempts due to what appeared to be a "miscalibration"	Horry	Y	Apparently, this was a frequent occurrence. The touchscreen was not synchronized with the screen image.	S. Balaz
Issue	County	Affidavit	Comment	Person
	Union	Y	After selecting Harrison Musselwhite, the screen lit McMaster; he had to touch the screen two more times to get it to select Musselwhite. He overheard several other people having the same problem. It would take them several touches to get it to "take" their preferred select.	D. Bright
	Bluffton	Y	Vote for tax referendum switched from no to yes. This happened 2 times took a total of 3 attempts.	Nancy Pardo York

Issue	County	Affidavit	Comment	Person
	York	Y	Time on the poll books and tabulators was off by several minutes/tech claimed some were off by a day...
	Kershaw	Y	vote flipped from Lauren Martel to Alan Wilson	A. McKim
			Vote flipping 3 times to get right candidate	V. Linder
	Lexington	Y	3 of the 4 machines were not accepting ballots to be fed into the BMD. This required registering people again and or provisional ballots. This happened approximately 8 times in just over an hour. 2 provisional ballots were required out of the 8	L Scharr
	Beaufort	Y	A Couple said that their votes were switched on a referendum	Nancy and Rob Pardo York

			Ballot jamming and ultimately was put in the box as opposed to reregistering	M Doherty
	Greenville		Votes flipping on touchscreen and reports of paper ballot not reflecting the voter's choices	J Dill
Candidate races missing from machines/ballots	Beaufort		Mike Covert who was running for a local county council seat went to the polls to vote and he wasn't on the ballot. This was due to redistricting and they had the wrong district loaded for anyone who was redistricted. WE have no idea how many people were affected but he didn't get equal treatment in his race

Issue	County	Affidavit	Comment	Person
	Lexington		People showed up at Amicks Ferry at 7 AM and the machines were down so they needed to go to emergency paper ballots but they had the wrong ones --district 40 instead of 85. there were about 20 people who left because they were not able to vote for the local house race for that district.

Was harassed by the poll clerk and not able to observe the primary properly -(Title 7-13-860, 7-13-1420, Poll Mgr. Handbook p. 40)	Charleston	Y Lull	were yelled at, told they had to stay 30-60 ft away from anything they could possibly observe even though the law explicitly states that observers can be 5 ft away	M. Lull/K. Fowler
	Charleston	Y Lull	were harassed by 2 workers there.	M. Lull/K. Fowler
	Charleston	Y Lull	Were yelled at for being "disruptive " even though they were sitting far away and were quiet. Poll clerk called the police on them. And told them they needed letters even though to be an observer that is not required	M. Lull/K. Fowler

	Beaufort		Poll managers sent their names to BOE to complain just because they were asking questions; told people to be on the lookout for them.	Jim/Deb Stephenson
	Lexington	Y Lull	Was given a hard time about asking for daily vote totals as an observer--was told she needed a daily request and or should be done via FOIA. Workers at the BOE were also very dismissive and rude when we asked to observe the absentee ballots; a police report was filed to document that they were not in compliance with the law	P. Tondini

Issue	County	Affidavit	Comment	Person
Obstruction of voting/observation (Title 7-13-60)	Charleston	Y Lull	Polling location was not fully set up in time for first voters to enter/many voters left due to long waiting times and slow poll workers	M. Lull/K. Fowler
	Charleston	Y Lull	The poll clerk blocked the final tape info; we have a picture of that....

Absentee ballots examined prior to legally mandated date (Title 7-13-35 OLD Law applies due to notification requirements)	Lexington	Y	The county board examined the ballots and sorted them based on whether or not they had the appropriate signatures oaths prior to 2 days preceding the election. At first, when asked to repeat the process so that there could be observers there, they told us they would not redo this process. They subsequently relented after we contacted the SEC counsel reminding them of the law; 7-13-72. Note that the number of bad ballots increased from 6 to 11 when they redid the process of examination	P. Tondini

Issue	County	Affidavit	Comment	Person
	Dorchester	Y	These were done prior as instructed in the calendar from the SEC; not per the state law! They were also told to sit 30 feet away from the process so they couldn't see anything.; They didn't redo this process for the observers and told observers that it was not mandatory for this to happen. the location of the ballots was also in question as they were told 2 different locations St George and Summerville.	D. Neal
	Berkeley	Y	Employees appeared to be obstructing her from observing the process of examining and processing absentee ballots. Even appeared to lie to her about not eating although they were during the day.	H. Hickman

Absentee Ballots for runoff			Voters who requested absentee ballots for the primary were automatically issued them for the runoff. There was an 'error' made by the printing vendor, resulting in all but 4 republican voters receiving Democrat ballots. Replacements were mailed out Friday, the 24th. Here is a link to the story: Nearly 1,400 Republican voters received Democrat absentee ballots for Horry County runoff elections, officials say (wmbfnews.com) A low % of these were returned on time (153), but the same was true of Democrat runoff absentee ballots that did not have this issue.
